PROUD of your CHURCH?

NOW...reflect its BEAUTY and CHARM on your
BULLETIN COVERS!

Your Bulletin Covers Can and SHOULD portray the Charm and Individuality of your Church. Why use dull, prosaic Covers when you can have attractive Covers at LOW COST?

A photograph of your Church is lithographed on the Cover, with appropriate wording. The back page can have your directory, or may be left blank. Shipped flat—8½ x 11 inches for local printing or duplicating equipment.

If you use 75 per week or more, these Bulletin Covers are practical, and the cost remarkably low. Write now to Andrew Cowan for full information.

book. A Christian will find his faith deepened, renewed and made to sing amid the crises and crosses of today.

JEST FOR THE PARSON

A five year old girl watching her baby brother receive baptism asked the pastor, "Are you going to put him in that water and then put the lid on?" Her look of expectation made those present sure that she added under her breath, "I hope!" You may have your favorite story concerning comments during baptism or dedication of children (if you are of Baptist conviction it would be the latter, of course). One of mine has to do with a very young Episcopalian who was present when an infant received the sacrament of baptism. The minister officiating did not use the antique English to which she had become accustomed. When he said, "I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" the little lass missed the ancient English word for the third person of the Trinity. In a voice loud enough to be heard by the congregation she asked the pastor reprovingly, "What happened to the 'Holy Goat?'"
